About PATA Intern Associate Programme

The PATA Intern Associate Programme provides students with the opportunity to learn about PATA and PATA activities including advocacy, research, membership, and events. The PATA programme has attracted intern associates of different nationalities from various destinations and backgrounds around the world. PATA intern associates will be required to perform operational, support, and administrative tasks in various parts of the organisation at PATA Headquarters in Bangkok, Thailand.

The key areas of the organisation include:

- Membership
- Marketing and Communications
- Event Management
- Research and Statistics
- Human Capital Development
- Corporate Social Responsibility
- Photography and Video production

Please click here (http://64.78.36.53/Intern/PATAInternAssociateProgramme_definedTasks.pdf) to view the defined tasks within each of the areas of the organisation

PATA provides on the job training with senior staff members to all intern associates, benefiting both the student and employer. Intern associates are given certain tasks and assignments depending on their interests in each business function.
